

HTC Wednesday Research Seminars: Semester 2 (2023)

We welcome a wide range of guests at our post-graduate seminars, get in touch with us at htc@uhi.ac.uk to register your interest, we'd love to welcome you to join us. All our seminars begin at 3:45 pm.

January 18th: Tom Greggs (Aberdeen): 'Illuminating Grace: The Spirit's Work in Aiding Reception and the Hearing of the Word' (POSTPONED-TO BE RE-ARRANGED)

25th January: Innes Visagie. 'Other Minds, God's Mind, and the Epistemological Role of the Spirits.'

8th February: Rob Shillaker. ' "Manners maketh man": AI as imago hominis.'

22nd February: Heather Major. 'Embodied, Contextual and Rural – Reflections on the Future of Rural Churches.'

8th March: Alasdair MacLeod. 'Losing their religion? Secularism and young people in twentieth-century Scottish literature.'

22nd March: Mark Stirling. 'Divine fullness, ἀρπαγμός and kenosis in Philippians 2.'

19th April: Anna Paaso (UHI). 'Knowledge exchange and impact.'

26th April: David Kirk. '"We" and "You": Jews and Gentiles in Ephesians 1 and 2 and the covenantal "shape" of coming-to-Christ.'

May: PGR students, Jamie Grant.