1. Policy Statement

- 1.1 Highland Theological College UHI aims to promote a positive learning environment. This is set within the context of the broader framework of policies and related procedures.
- 1.2 In developing this aim, Highland Theological College UHI recognises that the appropriateness, development and acceptability of certain conduct may be different depending on the background and maturity of the learner(s) involved, and that individuality and context will be recognised.
- 1.3 This policy sets out how we seek to promote and maintain a positive learning environment, with reference to the Student Code of Conduct, and procedures in the event of breach of the Code. The relevant Procedures explain the process that will be followed (see Appendix 1 – Disciplinary Framework).
- 1.4 This policy applies to the University of the Highlands and Islands and all Academic Partners.

2. Definitions

- 2.1 Behavioural misconduct: Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional and courteous manner, both on and off campus, in a manner which demonstrates respect for Highland Theological College UHI, its staff, fellow students and property, and for other members of the local community in general. Behavioural misconduct is a breach of this expected standard.
- 2.2 Student Code of Conduct: This is a document that is made available to and is applicable to all students and that states Highland Theological College UHI's expectations for student conduct. It gives examples of misconduct offences and the types of disciplinary action likely to occur.

It may be deliberate or unintentional and may take different forms, including, but not limited to: plagiarism, cheating, collusion, falsification or fabrication of data, personation and bribery.
- 2.4 Academic maladministration: Any activity or practice which arises due to ignorance of Awarding Body requirements, or carelessness or neglect in applying the requirements. This results in non-compliance with an Awarding Body's requirements.

- 2.6 Exclusion from campus: the removal of the student's access to all sites constituting Highland Theological College UHI campus for a specified period of time in response to a disciplinary incident. In some circumstances this exclusion may extend to all University and Academic Partner campuses. The student may continue to study remotely throughout this period.

In some circumstances this exclusion may apply to the University and all Academic Partners for a period of time deemed appropriate by the disciplinary process. In some cases this may result in any future applications from the student being rejected.

- 2.8 Suspension of Studies: A Suspension of Studies is not a disciplinary measure. It occurs when a student chooses to take a period of time out from their studies because of a change in their personal circumstances, with the intention to return at a later date.
